

Cathars

Patrick Weber

Pub. Date : September
2008

Extent :383 pages

→ Paperback size
rights sold to Pocket

The Book

The second part of the Black Order roots Trilogy : on the steps of Cathars

Brief description

They were exterminated
Seven centuries have past
Their hatred is intact - History can resume

Paris, 1952, alerted by a mysterious phone call, the young historian Pierre Le Bihan is thrust in a gasping investigation in which he attempts to chase the ghosts of Cathar knights.

Gone to Montsegur to follow the steps of the nazi intellectual Otto Rahn, he faces the hostility of a population which seems to keep its secrets.

In front of the implacable determination of the Black SS Order, he risks his life...and the world, it's freedom.

The Author

Writer, screenplay and journalist, Patrick Weber was born on March 10th 1966. After the great success of his novel Vikings, he signs, today, the second part of the Black Order roots Trilogy.

Vikings' translation rights has been sold to Russia, Spain,
Romania

Previous books

Vikings (Timée Editions)

La vierge de Bruges (Le Masque), L'Ange de Florence (Le Masque), Le pénitent de Paris (Le Masque), Le Diable de Rome (Le Masque)

Le grand cinquième (Lattès)

Le chat a vomis (Belfond)

Des ombres sur Alexandrie (Le Masque), les sept papyrus (Le Masque), Les dîners de Cléopâtre (Le Masque)

And Comics + historical documents